LAFOLLETTE'S VETO OF PRIMARY BILL

Scores Opposition for Methods Employed to Defeat Original Measure.

STALWARTS HIT BACK

They Came Within Two Votes of Passing the Bill Over the Veto.

THE ICE TAX BILL IS UP AGAIN

Madison, Wis., May 10.—The Hagemeister primary election bill passed by the legislature was sent to the senate today with a veto by Governor La Follette, as has been expected.

In his veto message the governor reviewed at some length the primary election question. Coming down to its course through the legislature he took occasion to score the opposition for some of the methods employed to defeat the original bill and referred to the federal office holders and their work against the bill.

If the bill finally passed the governor said he could not approve it under his oath of office. One of the governor's objections brought out the point that it was not generally realized that if the law was enacted it would not take effect until after the next general election.

On the motion of Senator Long Jones immediate action was taken on the veto. The Stalwarts held their forces together and came within two of passing the bill over the governor's veto, the vote being 17 to 11.

Another veto was sent in by the governor of the bill repealing a law authorizing a dam on Lost river.

The Lenroot anti-trust bill was killed in the senate without the formality of a discussion or roll call.

The hall three cornered poison bottle bill was also refused concurrence by the senate.

The senate reconsidered its vote killing the bill taxing ice shipped out of the state and advanced it to third reading.

There was a lively discussion in the assembly over the bill passed by the senate cutting off the payment of fees at the university. It was killed sixty to nine.

ANTI-PASS GOES TO PEOPLE.

Only Eight Votes Against the Resolution in the Senate.

Madison, Wis., May 10.—The primary election bill veto did not come in last evening as was expected. The three days allowed the governor for its consideration expire at noon today, and if the veto does not come then, the bill will become a law with or without his signature.

Anti- Pass Resolution.

Last night the senate concurred in the anti-pass resolution with very little debate, and only eight votes against it. It was discovered that no provision was made to get the amendment before the people and a bill to correct the error was introduced. It simply authorizes the secretary of state to submit the amendment to the people and directs how it shall be done.

Game Fire Wardens.

Wisconsin is going to adopt the practice in vogue in some states of constituting the game wardens, fire wardens also. A bill for that purpose was passed in the assembly. Their work will not conflict with that of the regular fire wardens appointed under the provisions of the forestry act.

For Compulsory Vaccination

The Collins bill for compulsory vacicnation has gone through both houses and if the assembly does not reconsider it, will be a law as soon as it is signed and published. It was amended so that persons having religious scruples against the practice can be exempted from the operation of the law by applying to a court for relief.

Eager's Way of Comparison.

Once in a while something funny relieves the tedium of the assembly's endles talking. This morning Mr. Eager got quite excited over the engineer's bill and arose to address the assembly for a third time. Mr. Meloney raised the point of order that he had already spoken twice on the bill. "He hasn't done any talking this winter," said the speaker. "Give him a chance." He improved the chance and sprung a new simile. He said that somebody did not know any more about something than a toad knows about its grandmother!

Refuses to Surrender.

Mr. Whitehead unsuccessfully tried to have the vote by which the bill limiting the common school tax levy to $850,000 a year was killed reconsidered. He made a long argument in favor of reconsideration, but the proposition was turned down by a vote of 20 to 10. Under a law recently enacted the state board of equalization is compelled to assess all property in the state a mill on each dollar for common school purposes. The representatives of the richer and more populous portions of the state fear that their section will be called on to contribute largely to the support of the schools in the poorer and more sparsely settled districts.

Martin's Bill Advanced.

Judge Orton raised the objection to Senator Martin's bill relating to the power of the governor to investigate state institutions. He said he did not think the governor wanted the bill.

The bill creating a state department of forestry was killed by a large vote after a short debate.

Next A. O. U. W. Convention.

La Crosse, Wis., May 10.—In the Ancient Order of United Workmen's convention last night Milwaukee won over West Superior in the race to secure the next convention by a margin of twelve votes. The Cream City won by a vote of 164 to 152.

It is expected that the convention will finish its work and adjourn today.

ONLY A FEW MORE REBELS ARE LEFT

All of General Tinio's Filipino Insurgents Have Surrendered Except a Mere Handful.

Manila, May 10.—Reports from the districts commanded by General Bell show that 783 riflemen have surrendered during the last month. These include all of General Tino's men who have remained out and the force of the ex-priest rebel, Aglipay, who surrendered at Laoag on April 28, with the exception of forty men, who have disobeyed their ex-leader's orders to come and who remain under arms in the province of Ilicos Norto.

The trial of Captain Barrows before a military court is being carried on rapidly. Today was devoted by the defense to proving his good character and attempting to show that Lieutenant Boyer was the principal in the bacon deal. It does not appear possible that Captain Barrows can escape conviction.

CAPT. ACHTERBERG CANNOT RESIGN

Adjt. Gen. Boardman Will Not Accept His Resignation, and It Will Be Withdrawn at Once.

Charles T. Achterberg will continue to be captain of Company I for at least a year longer. His resignation as captain of the company which was sent into headquarters some time ago has not been accepted.

He has received a notification from Adjutant General Boardman of the W. N. G. that for many reasons it was thought that for the best interests of the service his resignation be not accepted. Under these conditions Captain Achterberg will withdraw his resignation and remain in command of the company which has grown to be one of the best companies in the regiment under his leadership.

Captain Achterberg is an efficient officer and has devoted a great deal of time and study to bring the company up to its present standard of excellence. There is hardly a member of the company who is not pleased to learn that he will still stay in command and keep the company on a firm footing.

Mt. Dallas, Pa., May 10.—A freight engine on the Huntington Broad Top road blew up this morning killing five. The dead are: Chas. Hollingshead, conductor; Snyder Berkestresser, engineer; John Ritchie, Geo. Edwards, brakemen, and J. E. Throop, bystander.

HIGH PRICES FOR OLD BOOKS.

A First Edition of "Paradise Lost" Brings $830 in New York.

New York, May 10.—A first edition of John Milton's "Paradise Lost," London, 1667, brought $830 at the auction sale here of the books and letters collected by William Harris Arnold. It is the highest price ever brought by an early Milton edition.

A first edition of "Adonais," by Percy Bysshe Shelly, Pisa, with the types of Didot, 1821, sold for $510, and Tennyson's "The Falcon," London, 1879, for $410. "The Promise of May," by the same author. London, 1882, sold for $430.

PROGRESS IN RURAL MAIL DELIVERY; THERE ARE NOW 3,000 FREE ROUTES

Experimental Period Has Passed--Within a Few Years Every County in the U S. Will Have a Complete Free Mail Delivery Service.

Washington, D. C., May 10.—No development in the mechanism of government has been so astonishing as the advance in the rural delivery service of the postoffice department. Less than half a dozen years ago Assistant Postmaster General Jones of Illinois reported that the proposed rural free delivery was not feasible.

The entire influence of the department was cast against it, but congress insisted on an experiment, which was continued for some years.

3,000 Rural Routes.

Now the free delivery of letters in rural communities is only a question of appropriations. There are now in operation, only six years after the department, under a previous administration, reported adversely, no less than 3,000 rural routes. Each of these routes costs annually from $500 to $1,000. In addition to these, about 500 routes have already been ordered to be established by July 1.

Congress has increased the experimental appropriation up to $3,500,000. The routes already in operation and ordered will use up about $2,500,000. This leaves a balance of only about $1,000,000 for the next fiscal year, and a good deal of that will be used up for additional clerk hire, purchase of equipment, salaries of inspectors, and similar expenses incidential to the creation of a new governmental bureau.

Need More Money.

The result is the appropriation for the fiscal year beginning July next will be exhausted before half the petitions for rural free delivery routes now on file can be granted. It is probable, therefore, that, as soon as he returns, the Postmaster General will be obliged to issue a formal notice that it will be useless for Congressmen to forward any more applications until there is an increase in the annual appropriation.

It has become quite evident to the postoffice officials that the experimental period has entirely passed, and in their opinion the country is destined to see before the close of the present administration a revolution the like of which has not been seen in the postal business since the introduction of the envelope and the perforated postage stamp. Only last year the appropriation for this service was fixed at the ridiculous sum of $450,000.

System Has Come to Stay.

It was the intention of the department to make the attempt to cover entire counties with a regular mail delivery. The demand for the service has been so enormous however, that most of the increases must be in the direction of separate routes. It is predicted by the department that within a few years every county in the United States which possesses fair density of population and a reasonably good roads will have a complete free delivery service.

SPANISH ANARCHISTS IN REVOLT

Rising in Barcelona is Fatal to the Regular Troops—Enormous Crowds Engage in the Riots.

Barcelona, Spain, May 10.—An anarchist rising which lasted one day has been killed in the bud by vigorous efforts of General Weyler, minister of war. It was serious enough to have resulted in the slaying and wounding of many soldiers and officers and the killing of a dozen or more of the rioters. Over 100 arrests of anarchists, socialists and extreme Catalanists have been made. Twenty-one of the most notorious "reds," including Chiefs Bofarull and Foncuberta, have been placed in irons on board the warship Pellayo. The incentive to the rising was a discontent as to wages and hours of work in the factories of Barcelona, which ended in collisions with the troops. The anarchists had been agitating for a week among the famishing workmen. Their motto during the agitation was "Death to the king and the church!" On flamboyant pamphlets they called attention to the enormous amount of money that was paid to Rome to secure a special dispensation for the marriage of the king's sister, the Princess of Asturias. They also laid stress on the increasing demands of the church. An enormous crowd of people participated in yesterday's rioting. Many of the workmen still remained in the factories after a strike had been declared. The clash with the troops was precipitated by the attempt of the rioters to enter the factories and compel the men to quit. General Weyler, minister of war, has telegraphed to the captain general of Barcelona: "You will reply by arms to every cry of 'Death to the king!'". Order has been restored at the point of the bayonet. Troops occupy the suburbs of Barcelona, where the majority of the factories are situated, and work has been resumed.

ENGLAND AND WALES

Total Population of Two Countries is 32,525,716—Increase of 3,523,191, or 12.15 Per Cent.

London, May 10.—Census returns for England and Wales are practically complete, and show a population for the two countries of 32,525,716. This in an increase of 3,523,191 over the population of 1891, a gain of 12.15 per cent during the ten years.

Compared with former figures this is a gratifying showing. The census of 1891 showed an increase in the ten years from 1881 of 11.65 per cent. for the same districts.

Much interest attaches to the returns from the agricultural districts. Forty-eight counties show decided gains. These include the cities and manufacturing towns, while fourteen counties, mostly confined to agricultural interests, show decreases. The figures for Scotland and Ireland are not yet complete.

The population of the United Kingdom taken at he last census in 1891 was 38,104,975.

W. C. T. U. MEMBERS TALK CURFEW LAW

The members of the W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Kearney in the Jeffris flats yesterday afternoon and held a very profitable meeting. Arrangements for the state convention were perfected and the report of the committee on entertainment was an encouraging one showing that accommodations had been secured for over 100 of the 150 delegates expected.

The curfew law was also discussed at some length. The members of the union also enjoyed a talk from Mrs. Cowan, who is visiting relatives here and who all of her life has been a resident of the prohibition state of Maine.

C. E. Skinner of Brodhead was in the city yesterday looking after business matters.

COMBINE OF EUROPE AGAINST AMERICA

Germany Has Invited the Great Powers to Enter a Powerful Commercial Union.

London, May 10.—The Hague dispatches: Germany has invited France, Austria, Holland, Switzerland, Belgium, and possibly Russia and Italy to combine in a monstrous commercial union the object of which would be to exclude American competition until American duties are lowered.

PRESIDENT IS OFF FOR SAN FRANCISCO

His Train Left Los Angeles This Morning with Each Car a Perfect Bower of Roses.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 10.—With each car a perfect bower of roses and the ngine literally buried in a mass of flowers the presidential train left this morning on the last link of the long journey to San Francisco. Mantura was the first stop, Delmonte will be reached on Saturday morning, the party remaining there until Monday.

MASSACRE CONVICTS IN RUSSIAN PRISON

St. Petersburg, May 10.—The newspapers this morning published a story of a massacre of convicts by the guards in Saghalien prison. The prisoners recently demurred at the doubling of their tasks. For this they were flogged until the blood streamed own their backs. When one of the convicts protested he was shot down. A tumult followed and in the melee the guards fired on the victims killing 46 and wounding 59.

P. A. Marsh of Chicago, one of the canning factory firm, is in the city.

SEIZE IRISH NEWSPAPER.

William O'Brien's Office in Dublin Raided by Police.

Dublin, May 10.—The Irish People, William O'Brien's paper was seized last night by a party of police, who visited the offices of the paper and the new's agents shops and confiscated all copies of the current issue.

The reason for the seizure is supposed to be an acrid paragraph about King Edward VII., in which he is described as "a bald headed old roue." The paragraph also recalls several alleged discreditable incidents in the king's career as Prince of Wales.

Place on Board of Control.

Sheboygan, Wis., May 10.—It is generally believed here and in other parts of the county that ex-Senator M. C. Mead of Plymouth will not be appointed as the democratic member of the state board of control by Governor R. M. LaFollette, as was reported a few weeks ago. Many of the politicians are of the opinion that Alderman W. H. Graebner of Milwaukee will get he place as a recognition of the German element in the party which supported the republican ticket last fall.

RAPID GROWTH OF RAILWAY TRAINMEN

Amend Constitution Creating Office of Fourth Vice Grand Master—Repors of Officers.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—The feature of the convention of the Brotherhood of railway trainmen yesterday was the adoption of an amendment to the constitution creating the office of Fourth Vice Grand Master.

Grand Master P. H. Morrisey last night gave out a synopsis of his biennial report. During the year 1899 there were twenty-one new lodges organized, and in 1900 there were thirty-two organized.

In regard to the grievance work, Grand Master Morrissey reported that the grand officers had acted on the adjustment of seventy-five cases, official action being taken. These grievances involved sixty-five different railroads, and the majority of the settlements were of advantage to the railroad in the raising of wages, the adjustment of hours and the improving of working conditions.

In the reports of the Grand Secretary and Treasurer, the financial statement shows the organization to be in an exceedingly flourishing condition.

In two years there were 905 death claims adjusted and 411 disability claims paid. The total membership is 45,500, showing a net gain in two years of 12,100 members. Owing to the liberal policy of the brotherhood on the mater of claims there has been little litigation.

SCHWAB TALKS TO BOYS.

Tells Students of New York Trade School How to Succeed.

New York, May 10.—Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation, talked to the boys composing the graduating class of St. George's Evening Trade school at 8 o'clock.

"I will speak to you," began Mr. Schwab, "just as if you had come to my office asking for advice and the first thing I will say to you is to come alone. Don't come with somebody's backing. Learn to rely upon yourself. That is the first lesson. If you come indorsed by somebody of influence it always will leave room for others to say that whatever position you may get you got by influence and not because of your individual merit. No true success is built on influence. You must win your position for yourself. Then here is another thing that is essential—you must do what you are employed to do a little better than anybody else does it. Everybody is expected to do his duty, but the boy who does his duty and a little more than his duty is the boy who is going to succeed in this world. You must take an interest in what you are doing, and it must be a genuine interest."

NORTHERN PACIFIC CORNER IS BROKEN

Peace and Quiet in Finances Reigns on Wall Street Today.

BURLINGTON DEAL SURE

The Morgan-Hill Syndicate Seems to Have the Best of the Contest.

MARKETS EASILY RECOVERING

New York, May 10.—Another gray, damp day greeted Wall street men as they went down town today. But the brokers themselves felt better. They believed the worst danger was over. One of the earliest rumors of the morning was to the effect that the Northern Pacific corner was broken.

W. K. Vanderbilt, an important factor in the market returned from Europe today. He termed the situation as "silly" but refused to make further comment. His influence will certainly be used for peace.

Will Be No Failures.

Before the opening there were many offers to bet large sums of money that there will be no failures whatever. This confidence is due to the fact that all clearing sheets were entered last night in perfect order.

It is officially announced this morning that the shorts in Northern Pacific will be allowed to settle for one hundred and fifty per share.

It is also announced that the loans made yesterday aggregating $25,000,000 will not be called in today and that the rate of interest will be marked down materially below yesterday's closing rate.

Stocks opened strong and higher. Gains from 1 to 14 points in St. Paul were shown in the opening prices. The rally extended throughout the entire list. Business is decidedly active.

Easier Money Today.

Northern Pacific, in accordance with the official announcement that shorts would be permitted to settle at one fifty, sold at that price at the start.

As the morning progressed the feeling of confidence increased. Business in Northern Pacific is extremely light. Easier money today is a big factor in the settling market.

Some Who Went Broke.

New York, May 10.—It is reported that among those who went broke yesterday are Senator Cockrell of Missouri and James G. Blaine, Jr. The senator lost the savings of a life time and Blaine parted with half a million he recently won on Wall street.

Burlington Deal a Fact.

The Burlington deal is known to be an accomplished fact it has already been accomplished. The Morgan-Hill interests control the Northern Pacific stock, and the board of directors has absolute power to close the Northern Pacific-Burlington deal without the consent of two-thirds of the Northern Pacific stock. The old law of the Northern Pacific prescribed that two-thirds of the stock should assent to such a transaction as the present deal. This provision, still printed in the manual accepted as authentic has misled the opponents of the Morgan-Hill plans.

They Made a Mistake.

The Kuhn-Loeb interests, believing two-thirds stock consent in Northern Pacific necessary to consummation, have striven to absorb enough Northern Pacific to prevent two-thirds consent, with the results seen in Wall street this week. Yesterday afternoon they discovered that two-thirds consent of Northern Pacific stock was not necessary to the Morgan Hill deal—that they had acted on wrong information on that point.

London Markets Recover.

London, May 10.—The market for American railway shares recovered sharply this morning. St. Paul recovered twenty points. Northern Pacific is quoted at around 134.

May Place Loan Here.

New York, May 10.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: American capitalists may be asked by the Chinese government to subscribe to the loan it will have to negotiate to pay the indemnity to be exacted by the powers.

Buys Paran Stevens Property.

New York, May 10.—George C. Boldt, proprietor of the Waldorf-Astoria, has bought the property of the Paran Stevens estate, on the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-seventh street, for $900,000.

Slain by an Insane Man.

Oregon City, Ore., May 10.—T. S. McClindy, in a fit of insanity, shot and killed Howard Baker, then killed himself, at Boone's Ferry, 12 miles south of here.

The Tobacco Leaf Trade

Probably few people, outside of those directly interested in the tobacco business, realize that before long Janesville will be acknowledged to be the principal tobacco market in the state. This proud position has been held by Edgerton for many years, but all over this section of the state, at least, tobacco men realize that Janesville is now neck and neck with Edgerton and is making a spirited hustle for first place.

It is a contest which can have but one ending—victory for Janesville.

This result is made certain by the many advantages which the city has and the superior facilities for accommodating the business. Chief among these advantages is the excellent railroad service. Edgerton has only one railroad, the C. M. & St. P. Janesville is now on three lines with the possibility of a fourth coming here and the shipping facilities both in to the town and out of it are excellent.

Eastern firms especially prefer Janesville on account of fire protection and the better rate of insurance both of which are important items.

There is another problem which Edgerton finds it difficult to solve but which can be cared for easily here—the problem of accommodations for help. Edgerton is crowded to the limit now and it is said that many of the tobacco helpers have their sleeping quarters in halls and corridors and in business offices. For a place the size of Edgerton people are unwilling to invest money in boarding houses for people who are employed only part of the year and for whom the town has no employment except through the tobacco season. The condition of affairs alone is sufficient to limit the growth of the industry in Edgerton.

Within the last few years at least half a dozen prominent Edgerton buyers have located in this city and the end is not yet. Two or three others expect to follow suit in the near future foremost among the number being Mr. Underhill.

* * *

Among the new warehouses to be erected here during the coming summer will be one by Young & Newman of Philadelphia, and one by John Soulman. Young & Newman is the firm for which J. M. Thayer is the local agent and which has for many years occupied the old labaratory. The business has outgrown its accommodations and the company will build a large warehouse, the interior of the building being constructed according to modern ideas and the needs of the business. It will have a capacity of 3,000 cases but its definite location has not yet been determined upon.

John Soulman has also felt the need of better accommodations for a long time. He sorts at 49 North Main street above his cigar factory. There are at present thirty-seven warehouses in the city.

* * *

There are sixteen sorting rooms running at present and there is a shortage of help. Two hundred people could easily find employment. As a result of this shortage of help, the sorting season is likely to be long.

The plants are up and growing nicely. They look well and in most instnaces are plentiful. The acreage promises to be larger than last season all over the state.

The sale of old tobacco is rather quiet at present but local people are still doing some buying of the 1900 crop.

George H. Rumrill was in Beloit yesterday to buy.

It is to be regretted that this city did not secure the American Tobacco company's warehouse which went to Sparta. The company had Sparta in mind when this city was considered and it is said that the Spartans came forward with the offer of a free site and whatever inducements the company might ask. It would hardly seem as if this offer brought about the decision in Sparta's favor for Janesville business men were given no opportunity to make any proposition whatever. A gentleman, who is in a position to know, says it is possible that the company may locate a warehouse here in the future.

A special from Sparta says that the city can scarcely realize the extent of the importance to her of the invasion of the city by the American Tobacco company. The work of building the three great structures to constitute the plant will begin at once. They will consist of a store house 68x307 feet on the ground, having a capacity of 11,000 cases; a work house 58x189 feet, three stories high, capacity 121,000 cases; a lumber house 60x120 feet, capacity 12 car loads. The concern will employ 600 hands and will consume 1,500,000 feet of lumber yearly for casing, using their own apparatus for sawing.

PAID $100 FOR A LITTLE EXPERIENCE

There is a story going the rounds at the expense of a local dry goods merchant who, it is claimed, paid $100 for a little chunk of experience the other day, the game by which he was caught being as old as any of the well worn devices of the confidence men.

The other day a young man, a stranger, came into his place of business and introduced himself as Scott & Co., saying that he was taking the place of the regular salesman on this route, who was sick. He gave the regular salesman's name and the merchant gave him quite an order for goods.

The next day the young salesman dropped in again and had a social chat with the merchant, telling him that he was "doing the town." Later the merchant received a telegram signed Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., and asking him to advance $100 on their account to their salesman, giving his name. The pretended salesman produced a telegram telling him that the merchant had been notified to advance him $100.

The merchant obligingly produced, the young man skipped town, and the merchant finds it rather hard to look pleasant when other people give him the ha ha.

THE WELL DRESSED GIRL.

Hints for Her Guidance When Choosing Summer Attire.

White holds first rank this summer, as it did last, for children, young girls and young women, and for older ones also when combined with black.

White lawn graduation gowns this year are trimmed with dainty hemstitched or lact trimmed ruffles upon the skirts, the waists being tucked and hemmed, with embroidered or lace insertion set in.

White and colored wash silk shirt waists made like ordinary cotton ones will be much worn this season.

Wide sashes of soft ribbon used as belts and ending with long ends coming to the edges of the skirts, are to be used with summer gowns.

Collars are made from two to three inches deep and over foundations that may be bought in all sizes. As a rule the collar is made of the dress material and trimmed as the waist is.

Most of the parasols this season are of striped silk in white colors, and many others are of plain black and the dark shades. The sticks are long and as a rule are less ornate than they were a year ago.—May Ladies' Home Journal.

The four prizes are gold, those for the two events being exactly alike. They are at Hall, Sayles & Fifield's, where they will be placed on exhibition in a few days. The first prizes are small gold medals of very neat design. They bear the lettering "J. H. S." on the bar and on the pendant of one is engraved "Best 100 yard dash, '0.." and on the other "Best 100 yard dash, '01."

The second prizes are clasp pins and bear a similar engraving to that on the medals with the exception that the words "second prize" are added.

Death of Henry Richards.

On Tuesday, May 7th, while at work upon his farm in the town of Center, Henry Richards suffered a severe stroke of paralysis. He was carried to his room by his son, Earl, and medical aid was summoned at once, but of no avail, and at 9 p. m. his noble heart ceased to beat.

Mr. Richards was born in Goshen, Conn., in 1834. In 1845 his parents, Enos and Sarah Richards, came to Wisconsin as pioneers. Here Henry, with his brothers and sister, grew to manhood, remaining at home until 1868, when he purchased the farm ever since occupied by him. In 1869 he was married to Miss Sarah Hawk of Center, who with two sons, Wilbur and Earl, survives the husband, and father.

Mr. Richards was one of the best known and most esteemed citizens of Rock county. He joined in every worthy effort to improve the community, being especially interested in educational and religious progress. For over twenty-five years he has been a leading member of the Methodist church in Footville. With his family and neighbors his opinion in all vital matters has always been sought and obtained. His deeds live after him, and ever in the hearts of the many who loved him will his influence abide. The funeral services held at 2 p. m. Thursday, at the Methodist church, Footville, were attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. Rev. Harland Logan, assisted by the former pastor, Rev. John Lugg, conducted the services.

NO WRITING ON 4TH CLASS MATTER

The postmasters throughout the country have received instructions from the department at Washington that will be of interest to the public. It relates to writing on fourth class matter. The instructions read:

"It specifically states that the sender may write upon the wrapper or cover of a package of fourth class matter, or upon the tag or label accompanying the same,' the marks of description, etc., By implication, the writing of the marks of description, etc., upon the matter itself is prohibited." Under this opinion postmasters are instructed that if any marks of description relating to fourth class matter, as for instance, a photograph album or a hand book are written upon the article itself, then the rate of postage will be that of first-class matter. But these marks of description, etc., can be written on the wrapper or cover or tag or label attached to such fourth class matter. This has not usually been the practice, but as it has been officially decided by the law officers of the department that such is the requirement of the law it will have to be obeyed.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Pure, innocent fun, interspersed with scenes of intense dramatic interest is promised by Messrs. Chas. H. Yale and Sidney R. Ellis when they present Mr. A. H. Wilson, a new star in the theatrical firmament, in their beautiful comedy-drama, "The Watch on the Rhine," at the opera house Saturday night. The play is said to be a drama full of many ludicrous situations and thrilling climaxes, and its comedy, we are told, is so richly blended with pathos that laughter will chase away tears and leave none but the most pleasant memories behind. For its adequate presentation here Messrs. Yale and Ellis have provided an investure of scenic equipment that is said to be unsurpassed by any on the stage. To properly aid the young star in its dramatic presentation, the management have also secured the services of a number of the best known artists in the dramatic profession. Six new songs that will show the quality of Mr. Wilson's voice are features of "The Watch on the Rhine."

* * *

Better, brighter and merrier than ever before the Burgomaster delighted the second magnificent audience of the year at the Myers Grand last evening. Many there were in the audience who had laughed at its merriment and applauded its rousing choruses before, but there was a new charm to it all that made the second appearance more enjoyable, if possible, than the first.

There have been many changes in the cast and while some have not been for the better as a whole the company is stronger than it was before. It includes fifty-five people and there seems to be more good voices among the number than there were last fall. The choruses were especially good.

Gus C. Weinberg is very clever in the title role and his pleasing personality pervades the entire performance. He has a good singing voice and is an amusing comedian. Edith Yerrington, a favorite in the former company, is retained and is as pleasing as ever, although she was suffering from a cold last evening. Ida Hawley is a sweet singer and her ballad "I Love You" was one of the delights of the evening. The work of Andrew J. Lynam, George Broderick and Mabella Baker was worthy special mention and quite the hit of the evening was made by Alma Doerge, a recent addition to the company. She is bewitching in appearance, very clever in her singing and dancing and she enters into her work with an abandon and heartiness that takes the audience by storm.

The encores were frequent and the audience was very enthusiastic over all the old favorite choruses, the Indian song, the bowery aggregations, one member of which was certainly a "beaut," the soubrettes and the Kangaroo song, which was as catchy as ever, especially when sung by Charles Fulton. The male quartet was one of the excellent features in the production and the hypnotist song was heartily enjoyed.

Jennie—To have a beautiful neck wiggle your head from side to side every night take Rocky Mountain Tea. It's a short cut to a graceful form. 35c. Smith's pharmacy, kodak agents, next to postoffice.

GOOD RACING AT THE BELOIT FAIR

That Belot will witness some good racing at the fair this coming fall is evident at a glance at the fat purses that will be hung up. The list is as follows:

2:27 trot	300
2:18 trot	300
Free for all trot	400
2:40 pace	200
2:25 pace	300
2:13 pace	300
Free for all pace	400

The list is uniform as to speed and purses with other fairs in the circuit and was decided upon at the meeting held in Janesville recently.

In conversation with officials of the local association it is learned that the runing races will be eliminated from the speed program. Communications from experienced fair promoters elsewhere do not favor this feature—in fact, it has been done away with in most all fairs and it does not seem advisable to have it here.—Free Press.

Take Care of Your Hens.

Garden making time is at hand, and the very first problem to be solved is "What shall we do with the hen?" In seasons agone she has been on deck with her scratchers long before the seeds were sprouted.

In nine cases out of ten the hen and the garden did not belong to the same person, and for this reason the owner of the garden became greatly exasperated. Keepers of fowl should understand that in no instance does the statutes of the state permit fowl to run at large, and this means that they must be kept on the premises of the owner. If you would have good neighborly feelings, keep your hens at home.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TREASURY MEN NOT ALARMED

Controller Dawes Says Banks Not Hurt by Panic.

GAGE READY TO BUY BONDS.

He Is Ready to Throw Millions Into Market If Needed—Money Seems to Be Plenty — Disaster Only to the Speculator.

Washington, D. C., May 10.—Treasury officials have been watching with intense interest the exciting situation in Wall street, as developed during the last two days. Several of those talked to were inclined to say, "I told you so." These same officials are authority for the statement that the panicky situation in Wall street has not affected legitimate commercial enterprises in the slightest degree. On the contrary, it is pointed out, that it is much better for business to have a stock panic at the present time rather than along in the fall. Now the demand for money for business enterprises is only normal, so that there is a surplus to spare for Wall street. In the fall, however, money will be needed in the west to move the crops, and if at the same time there should be an extraordinary demand in Wall street, there would be an inevitable stringency in the money market, which would react on legitimate business.

Plenty of Money in Sight.

At the present time there is no apparent stringency in the money market. This is shown by the fact that the New York banks have been in such good shape that they could combine in the face of a wild panic, and offer to loan to the street the large sum of $16,000,000 at a 6 per cent rate, which, in view of the situation, is extraordinarily moderate. When the office closed in the afternoon Controller Dawes said that there was not the slightest indication thus far of an adverse effect on the national banks, either in New York or elsewhere. Secretary Gage, on the other hand, was somewhat suprised that the demand for money in Wall street, with the unsettled conditions there, had not resulted in uncovering a line of short term 4 per cent bonds, which the secretary is prepared to buy just now, wherever he can do so at a figure anywhere near reasonable. It was naturally to be supposed that the wild excitement in Wall street would withdraw money from such humdrum securities as government bonds, but the fact of the matter is the questions today are only fractionally lower than they were yesterday, and although the secretary is willing, and even anxious, to pay cash for many millions of the 4 per cent bonds of 1907, he has practically no offers made to him at the current rates.

Will Not Bring Disaster.

This fact, coupled with the strength of the national banks, conclusively proves what conservative officials have claimed all along—that while the stock balloon was certain to burst while high up in the air it would not bring disaster except to the people who were tangled up in the netting.

Bankers Check a Panic.

New York, May 10.—The strongest banks in the financial district took a hand in the stock market panic when it was most turbulent today, and by forming a pool had soon collected $19,500,000 to loan to approved borrowers in Wall street at the market rate.

M'KINLEY AT LOS ANGELES.

President Rides Behind Six Horses and Reviews Floral Parade.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 10.—From a broad, blue-canopied pavilion, surrounded by the members of his cabinet, with the governor of Ohio and notables from many states, President McKinley reviewed the floral parade of the Los Angeles carnival. The city was crowded, thousands coming from Pasadena, Santa Monica and other neighboring towns. Broadway, where the reviewing stand was located, was a mass of bunting, flags and pampas grass plumes. The president rode at the head of the parade in an open carriage drawn by six white horses to the reviewing stand.

Want Longer Terms for Officials.

Columbus, Ind., May 10.—The second day's session of the Municipal League of Indiana closed with a banquet, at which 200 plates were laid. Laws enacted by the last legislature furnished an interesting theme for discussion, and there was a general expression of opinion in favor of asking the next legislature to repeal the law reducing the terms of all city officers to two years and restore them to four years as before. The next semi-annual meeting will be held at Anderson in October.

Hits at Federation of Labor.

Sioux City, Ia., May 10.—The feature of the Iowa State Federation of Labor convention here was a denouncement of the methods of the American Federation of Labor by Delegate Holder of Des Moines, Deputy State Labor Commissioner. He arraigned the organization severely for its "machine" methods. His address was received with cheers. The visitors were entertained at a big smoker.

Speaker Sherman's Task Ends.

Springfield, Ill., May 10.—Speaker Sherman has concluded signing all house and senate bills. This concludes his official duties in Springfield, and he will leave today for home in Macomb, the attending physician saying he is able to travel.

Melbourne, May 10.—The opening of the first federal parliament took place at noon today and was a most impressive ceremony. The decorations consisted of regimental standards, trophies of arms and floral festoons.

O'Brien's Paper Is Seized.

Pekin, May 10.—An indemnity claim of 450,000,0000 taels will be presented to the Chinese plenipotentiaries. Official Chinese throughout the empire have been communicating with the court and giving advice. Most of them seem to favor a loan guaranteed by the foreign powers.

Count Boni Seriously Ill.

Paris, May 10.—Count Boni de Castellane has been confined to his room by sickness for a week. Appendicitis is now feared. His physicians are considering whether an operation is necessary.

Muscle

Does not make the man. "The blood is the life," the vital force of the body. So it not infrequently happens that the man who looks to be a picture of physical strength falls a sudden victim to disease. A proper care for the blood would prevent many a serious sickness.

The cleansing of the blood is perfectly accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It drives out the impurities and poisonous substances which corrupt the blood and breed disease. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of pure blood. It builds up the entire body with good sound flesh.

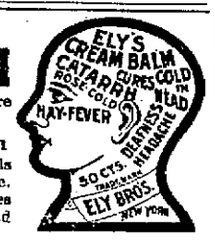

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" does so to gain the little more profit paid by inferior medicines. There is nothing "just as good" for the blood as "Golden Medical Discovery" therefore accept no substitute.

"I took five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' for my blood," writes Mr. William D. Shamblin, of Remy, Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. "I had 'ring worms' on me and I would burn them off and they would come right back, and they were on me when I commenced using 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and they went away and I haven't been bothered any more."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

R & G CORSETS
NEVER STRETCH

The moderately straight R & G No. 397 was and is the corset of comfort with the essence of style. It is straight enough for the prevailing vogue and curved enough to conform to healthful anatomical lines. In 1900 we were unable to fully meet the demand for straight-front goods and unwilling to resort to any makeshift to meet the conditions. At present, however, considerable additions to our factory facilities enable us to keep the trade supplied with real straight-front corsets at retail prices from $1.00 to $2.50, and also our 397, 197, Empire and other popular numbers. There are over seventy styles and sizes of R & G Corsets—a corset to fit every figure. R & G Corsets are the corsets that do not stretch. Every hairbreadth of stretch is taken out of the goods by means of steam-heated iron forms. This gives a permanency to the right shape and form that will stay in it until the last day you wear it. Every R & G Corset is sold with the understanding that it must give satisfaction to the wearer, or the dealer will supply a new one free of cost. If your dealer hasn't it, send us his name and we will see that you are supplied with what you want.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The W. C. T. U. convention soon to be held in this city, promises to be a gathering of unusual interest. Speakers of national reputation will be in attendance and a wide range of temperance topics discussed as indicated by the program recently published in these columns.

The W. C. T. U. is a strong organization and has accomplished much for personal purity, and clean morals. It touches more homes than any single organization in the land, because a large proportion of its members are mothers and home keepers.

In its intelligent work to surround child life with every safeguard, and to start young men and women out into life with an abhorrence for drink, and all the evils that the drink habit entails, it has the sympathy and encouragement of every mother in the land.

In its effort to reform men in practical ways, and redeem them from the thralldom of a habit that leads to temporal and eternal ruin, it has the "God bless you," of every wife, into whose heart and home, the viper of intemperance has cast his poisonous fangs, and left the impress of his deadly presence.

The motive that inspires this kind of work, is recognized as more than humane, or purely philanthropic. While it seeks to preserve and save men and women from themselves, it also attempts to open to their vision a source of power that is infinite, and abundantly able to keep them from evil.

That the work is blessed by the Master is apparent, wherever it is intelligently carried on, and many homes have been made happier, and the burden of many hearts lightened because of the faithful self-sacrificing work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Janesville is honored by the privilege to entertain their state convention, and the influence resulting will be helpful to the city.

A MATTER OF ECONOMY.

The expense just now being incurred by the Janesville Street Railway company, to protect underground pipes from electrolysis, while something of a burden, will pay for itself in a few years in saving.

Every spark of electricity that escapes from the rails, like every pound of steam that escapes from a boiler, represents coal, and this kind of waste going on constantly means a steady drain on the treasury of any company that permits it. A street railway that suffers this kind of waste, shows a lack of good management.

The trouble with too many of these roads is that they are built to sell, and not to operate, and the cheapest construction is the shortest and most profitable route to a bond issue.

That is the reason why cities, in granting franchises, are called upon to throw around them all the safeguards that the conditions require.

The Janesville road was built to sell, and its original construction was not what it would have been, had the promoters planned to make money operating it, rather than on a bond issue. While it has never been a bonanza for the owners, it is well for the company that the city in the interests of protection to public and private property, has required the safeguards now furnished. The safety wire will add to the value of the property, protect the company from damage suits, and save fuel enough in a few years to pay the cost.

TOO MUCH RED TAPE.

The unnecessary squabble in the assembly over the necessary force to handle the new system of book keeping, does not reflect much credit on the intelligence of the men who opposed the measure. There is always more or less red tape about the conduct of public business, and the more tape, the more men are required to handle it

The new system of state accounting, is a red tape system and if carried out to the letter, the office that has care of it will be loaded with business.

It is waste of time for the legislature to enact laws and then not provide for their execution, and that appears to be the condition of the new law on state book keeping.

If the system is never put in force it will be no financial loss to the state, but will be disappointing to the men who want to see it tested. Assemblyman Hall poses as a reformer, but his opposition to the working of the reform accounting measure, is another evidence that he is too erratic to pass successfully as any thing but an obstructionist. If the new law is worth any thing it is worth a fair trial, and that has been denied by the men who enacted it.

J. P. MORGAN AND SUBSIDIES.

The Milwaukee Sentinel has a timely editorial on subsidies, using the recent purchase of the Leyland fleet by J. Pierpont Morgan as a text.

The statment is made that if the subsidy bill had passed that Mr. Morgan would have been accused of being a party to it, and the public would have said that he could afford to buy fleets, if the government would help support them.

This sort of criticism would be very natural, and difficult to overcome.

The Gazette has maintained from the first that the subsidy bill was tinctured too strongly with class legislation, to ever be very popular and congress acted wisely in pigeonholing it.

Mr. Morgan will demonstrate before congress convenes whether there is money for American capital in a merchant marine. If he is successful, there will be no lack of money for similar investments. If he fails, there is no reason why the people should be asked to contribute money to help him out, or to start some one else in the venture.

It would be impossible to reapportion the state and have everybody satisfied, and it is safe to say that the bill known as No. 3, as finally adopted, comes as near pleasing a large majority of the voters in the several districts, as any that could have been enacted. It may be a little rough on Congressman Barney, where the democrats have a fighting chance, but he will be consoled by the fact that the apportionment is a little rough on democracy.

The assembly acted wisely in killing the bill that provided a place for a woman on the Board of Control. If any one has discovered what particular use the board has for a woman member, the public are not advised. The work of the board is largely executive and foreign to the class of work to which women are accustomed. The state will be the salary ahead, and the service will not suffer loss.

Money has advanced to ten per cent, in New York, and we may look for a "Black Friday" soon, caused by inflated stocks bringing such exhorbitant prices.

Why not spend our million per week in buying coffee of Porto Rico, Hawaii or the Philippines, instead of Java? Such a trade would mean much to our possessions, and would not make us any poorer.

MISSION MEETING AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Two Bodies Unite in an Enjoyable Business and Social Session

Yesterday Afternoon

Yesterday was a day of missionary interest in the Baptist church, two meetings being united in a manner that made the occasion one of social enjoyment and, very memorable in every way.

It was the quarterly missionary meeting of the church and was held in the church parlors. The Woman's missionary society met at four o'clock with a large attendance. Mrs. B. F. Dunwiddie, president of the society, presided and a varied program on mission work in general was given. Miss Amanda Herkimer read an interesting story and Mrs. J. A. Whiffen read a letter from the state secretary. Many of the other ladies took part in the program which was very enjoyable.

At six o'clock a missionary tea was served, the gentlemen being invited. The supper was especially appetizing and was provided by the ladies of the church, several young ladies waiting on the tables very prettily.

After supper the general missionary meeting of the church was held, Mrs. Mark Dunlap presiding. The subject was a home missionary one the countries chosen for consideration being Cuba and Porto Rico.

The meeting was opened with singing by the audience and prayer by A. F. Hall after which C. P. Beers read a paper on the outlook in Cuba; W. D. Mallett presented an article on the religious conditions in Cuba; B. F. Dunwiddie gave an interesting talk on the early work of Diaz in Cuba and Mrs. Dunlap spoke especially to the young people. Mrs. Dunlap's talk was an excellent one and was much enjoyed.

The musical part of the program was very fine and included a violin solo by Oscar Halverson, a piano duet by Mrs. M. O. Mouat and Miss Rose Hathorn, a vocal solo by Miss Grace Tennant and a selection by the boy's choir. The audience which enjoyed the program was large and appreciative.

George Shaller Cut and Bruised

George Shaller received a number of bad cuts and bruises while operating a planer at the Northwestern Novelty Company's plant on North Franklin street this morning. A piece of the iron frame of the machine broke loose and flew up with great force striking Mr. Schaller on the chin and mouth and cutting and bruising it quite badly. It was a narrow escape from a serious injury and Mr. Schaller is congratulating himself that it is no worse.

AFTON DEMANDS ELECTRIC ROAD

Have a Petition Asking Town Board to Refuse Franchise Unless Road Goes Through Afton.

The Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric railway has encountered another snag in its right of way question through the towns of Rock and La Prairie. The railway company asked for a franchise to construct and maintain a road through those towns. Mr. Clough met he town boards of those towns on Tuesday and stated to them what the road desired to do. The question was gone over thoroughly by the members of the board and the promoters and everything taken into consideration. The board took the matter under advisement and will report on the proposition later.

The one point that the board looked at the msot seriously was that the road asked to be allowed to use the highway for about a mile and a half just south of the city. This is the point that the board has taken under consideration.

Ever since the road was first talked of there has been a determined effort on the part of the people of Afton to have the line run from Beloit to Janesville through their town. Mr. Clough went over the route they asked him to follow and had a survey made. He found that on account of the hilly nature of the ground the route would be bad for their purpose and told the committee from that town what his reasons for not going through their town were.

Now the citizens of Afton are working a scheme to try and force the road to go through their town. They are using the town board as a leverage and have circulated a petition to the town board demanding that they do not give the road a franchise unless they go by the way of Afton.

This kind of a measure will not do the citizens of that town any good as the railroad company will not be forced to go when they know the road is not suited to their ideas.

Afton now has twenty-six passenger trains a day and a person can go to Janesville or Beloit almost every hour of the day. It shows a small spirit for the people of that place to try to block the construction of the road by such means as they are now using.

LOST TWO FINGERS IN A LAWN MOWER

Little Shryock McDaniels, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. McDaniels of 128 Washington street, had the ends of two fingers on his left hand cut off cleanly by the knife of a lawn mower, yesterday afternoon. The little fellow was playing with a number of companions on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Metcalf, 120 Washington street. Master McDaniels was picking dandelion blossoms and just as he stooped over to pick one, one of his playmates gave the lawn mower a push and before the warning could be given the mower had run over the boy's fingers and the sharp revolving knife had done its cruel work. The index finger was taken off just below the nail and the tip of the second finger cut off. His thumb was also badly cut.

The boy was taken at once to the Palmer hispital and Dr. W. H. Palmer summoned. He found the fingers badly mangled and took off a portion of the broken bone in the first finger that was crushed and broken. Later the ends of the fingers were found in the grass but it was too late to put them in place. The boy will get along all right but will have to go through life with one short finger.

An Exciting Runaway.

The horses attached to Mike Goodman's hack ran away this noon at the Northwestern station and before they were stopped succeeded in smashing the pole and damaging the hack some. The pole struck against the foundation of the passenger station just as Ed. Welch caught the horses by the head, otherwise te hack would ave been badly demolished.

THIEVES TAKE A TELESCOPE GRIP

Traveling Man from New York Lost Quantity of Very Valuable Lace Samples.

Edward McKeown, a traveling man from New York came very near being minus a large telescope grip containing several hundred dollars' worth of valuable lace which was left at the station. Mr. Mc Keown stopped at the Myers and when he arrived here left part of his baggage in the room at he Northwestern station and had the rest taken to the hotel.

Wednesday evening the lady that conducts the restaurant at the corner of Wall and Marion streets saw two men come out of a barn in the rear or her place and walk away. TEAM PLAY ON THE SINNISSIPPI LINKS

The Married and Single Men to Play on Decoration Day for New Hole Markers.

The handicap and games committee of the Sinnissippi golf club are arranging an interesting match to be played on the club's course Decoration Day. It will be between teams composed of the married and single members of the club and the losing side will be expected to purchase a set of new flags for the holes.

Active work on the course began this morning. A number of men and teams are employed in filling all the bad places in the course, building teeing grounds and finishing up the bunkers. A field mower and horse lawn mower are kept busy cutting the grass which grows about as fast as it can be cut.

When the work now in progress is finished the course will be in first class shape for low scores and will be equal to any course in the west.

A commodious house has been built for the green keeper and his wife and it will be a great convenience to the members of the club to have some one on the grounds all of the time.

Order Is Obtained from Court and Held Over Heads of Contending Factions to Force Abatement of the Tension—Wide-Range Fluctuations.

New York, May 10.—The worst panic—for the short time involved before it was checked—that Wall street ever saw came as a sequel to the contest for the control of the Northern Pacific railroad and to the cornering of the common stock of that road. At the time there was seemingly no bottom this side of zero to stock market prices. Stocks were offered for sale at any price they would bring, and under the immense mass of forced liquidating ery direction. Money rates, as is cusery direction. Money rates, is is customary in times of panic, when banks are calling loans, rushed upward to 60 per cent on call. Sales of stock were made at such losses compared with yesterday's closing prices as 30 to 60 points. The frantic shorts in Northern Pacific were willing to pay any price at all in order to get the stock, and in leaps and bounds the price of Northern Pacific rushed up from $170 a share, at which 500 shares were sold at the opening, to $1,000 a share, at which price 300 shares were sold for $300,000 cash. Never before in the history of the exchange has there been such a sensational movement in a stock. It helped cause the utmost demoralization elsewhere in the list, and helped along the frantic rush to get out of the market at any price. Three things, one after the other, operated to check the mad scramble to sell and to clear up the horizon for tomorrow, and as Wall street got the news of an inkling of it the selling pressure lightened. In the final dealings there were some sharp recoveries, due to the covering of short contracts and the buying by the bargain hunters, who always come to Wall street on panic days. The first piece of news referred to was the announcement made early in the afternoon that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and J. P. Morgan & So, had agreed not to call upon Northern Pacific shorts for the delivery of the stock today.

Court proceedings were responsible for this agreement, and not a desire on the part of the financial giants fighting for the property to avert a general panic. The speculative interests which had become involved by the battle of the Morgan-Hill and Harriman-Kuhn, Loeb & Co. syndicates, and who had unwittingly participated in bringing about a condition of affairs which they least of all desired, were amazed at the effects of their own handiwork, as evidenced in the market.

Text of the Injunction.

The order read:

"It is ordered that the defendant broker be restrained from purchasing any stocks of the Northern Pacific Railroad company in order to close the account of the plaintiff or for any other purpose on behalf of the plaintiff, or on account of the plaintiff, and all the defendants other than Rudolph Keppler and the New York Stock Exchange are restrained and enjoined from making any transaction whatsoever with respect to the stock of the Northern Pacific Railroad company on behalf of the plaintiff, and Rudolph Keppler and the New York Stock Exchange are restrained from ordering, directing or requiring the puchase of any stock of the Northern Pacific Railroad company by or on behalf of, or on account of the plaintiff."

In the meantime fortunes had been wiped out, some substantial ones were impaired, and the longest, highest and most continuous bull market in the history of American finance was thrown into a confused and tangled wreck.

London Seized with a Panic.

London, May 10.—Capel court rivaled New York in scenes of excitement and panic. The whole market broke in sympathy with the collapse in New York. The unprecedented situation was presented of Northern Pacific's selling at the same moment for 130 in London and 500 in New York, the explanation, of course, being that London deliveries would be impossible in time to affect the corner.

Rheumatism

Rheumatism is due to an excess of acid in the blood. When this escapes through the pores of the skin, as it often does, it produces some form of skin eruption—some itching disease like Eczema or Tetter—but when these little tubes or sweat glands are suddenly closed by exposure to cold and sudden chilling of the body, then the poisons thrown off by the blood, finding no outlet, settle in membranes, muscles, tissues and nerves. These parts become greatly inflamed, feverish and hot; dagger-like, maddening pains follow in quick succession, the muscles become extremely tender, the nerves break down and the sufferer is soon reduced to a state of helplessness and misery. This acid poison penetrates the joints and seems to dry out the natural oils, and the legs, arms and fingers become so stiff and sore that every movement is attended with excruciating pains.

Liniments, plasters, electricity and baths, while their use may give temporary ease, cannot be called cures, for the disease returns with every change of the weather. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by working a complete change in the blood; the acids are neutralized, the circulation purified and the rich, healthy blood that is carried to the irritated, aching muscles and joints, soothes and heals them. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism even when inherited or brought on by the excessive use of mercury. Opium, in some form, is the basis of nearly all so-called Rheumatic Cures, which deaden the pain but do not touch the disease and lead to ruinous habits. Alkalies and the potash and mineral remedies so often prescribed, affect the tender lining of the stomach and weaken the digestion, thus adding another burden to the already weak and impoverished blood. S. S. S. contains no mineral or dangerous drug of any kind, but is a simple, vegetable remedy and the most perfect blood purifier known. Send for our book on Rheumatism and write our physicians if you wish any information or advice. We would be glad to mail you a book free; we charge nothing whatever for medical advice.

"Three years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe, which left me almost a physical wreck. To add to my wretched condition, a severe form of Rheumatism developed. I tried all the physicians in our city, but none of them could do me any permanent good. I used all the rheumatic cures I could hear of, but received no benefit. After beginning S. S. S. I was relieved of the pains and have gained in flesh and strength and my general health is better than for years. I consider S. S. S. the grandest blood medicine in the world, and heartily recommend it to any one seeking relief from the torture of Rheumatism.
